

VENDOR CONFLICT OF INTEREST DECLARATION

For the purposes of this RFQ, the term “Conflict of Interest” includes, but is not limited to, any situation or circumstance where:

- (a) in relation to the RFQ process, the proponent has an unfair advantage or engages in conduct, directly or indirectly, that may give it an unfair advantage, including but not limited to (i) having, or having access to, confidential information of RPRA in the preparation of its proposal that is not available to other proponents, (ii) communicating with any person with a view to influencing preferred treatment in the RFQ process (including the lobbying of decision makers involved in the RFQ process), or (iii) engaging in conduct that compromises, or could be seen to compromise, the integrity of the open and competitive RFQ process or render that process non-competitive or unfair; or
- (b) in relation to the performance of the contractual obligations contemplated in the agreement that is the subject of this procurement, the proponent’s other commitments, relationships, or financial interests could, or could be seen to, (i) exercise an improper influence over the objective, unbiased, and impartial exercise of its independent judgement, or (ii) compromise, impair, or be incompatible with the effective performance of its contractual obligations.

The proponent declares that there is no actual or potential Conflict of Interest relating to the preparation of its proposal, and the proponent does not foresee an actual or potential Conflict of Interest in performing the contemplated contractual obligations.

The proponent declares that there is an actual or potential Conflict of Interest relating to the preparation of its proposal, and/or the proponent foresees an actual or potential Conflict of Interest in performing the contemplated contractual obligations.

If the proponent declares an actual or potential Conflict of Interest, the proponent must set out below details of the actual or potential Conflict of Interest:

RPRA will review and may prescribe certain requirements to resolve any situations that RPRA determines, in its sole and absolute discretion, create an actual or potential Conflict of Interest and/or exclude the proponent from the remainder of the evaluation process.
